On Tuesday evening of December 21 in the Raymond Consolidated School Auditorium the Parent-Teacher Association and Culture Club presented to a full house their annual Christmas program under the direction of Miss Mildred Carruth. She was assisted by Mrs. Paul Wells, dramatic teacher and all teachers and pupils when and where needed. The staging, lighting, costuming, perfection of detail bespoke the complete cooperation of each pupil and teacher.

Down the aisles of the darkened auditorium filed a stately procession of three robed choirs. Each young singer carrying a lighted white candle mounted his appointed place in the choir lofts before the red plush curtains. They continued to carol joyously until the curtains opened disclosing a majestic cathedral. On its snow-covered steps stood several small warmly-clad children sweetly singing Christmas tidings.

The climatic scene was a dramatic adaptation of the story by Raymond MacDonald Alden entitled "Why the Chimes Rang."

This was so beautifully staged and so well acted that the audience was filled with religious exaltation and awe that children so young could so realistically portray such profound truths.

Miss Carruth may have presented more colorful programs, but certainly never more impressive.

In Other Words

The Culture Club -- some are artists and musicians --
Uphold culture and its dignified traditions.

Our class is of course the upper-upper;
So we'll have a square dance and ice cream supper,
Pieces will be served with pastries and bows,
We'll have some of the old-time and modern songs.

When the dance is called, get up and step,
That hilly billy band will pick up the pep.
If crimes are committed in our halls and
Ladies on the right and left are all the same,

Swing your partner and do as I do,
Bring your spouse and let yourself go.
We'll dance by the glow of the lantern light--
Carlew shall not ring tonight.

HOME CULTURE CLUB ENTERTAINS AT SUPPER

On September 25 the members of the Home Culture Club invited their friends, husbands and new teachers in the community to be their guests for supper in the cafeteria of the Raymond Consolidated school. Each member brought her favorite dish and the apt hostesses took over from there — arranging flowers, setting tables and serving the delicious variety of foods.

"Entertainment in the Home," was the theme of the program which was cleverly brought out by the chairman, Mrs. J. C. Treloar. After supper, she invited members and guests to watch an international "TV" show in the school auditorium. Of course, any similarity between stars on the show and Mrs. Louis Boteler, Miss Mary Jane Brent, Mr. T. Beemon, Mrs. A. R. Epperson, Mrs. Gertrude Rowzee, Mrs. H. T. Matthews, Mr. O. B. Maxwell, Mrs. Liston Peyton, Mr. Don Maxwell and Mr. Newman Morris of Raymond was purely accidental!

The announcer, Mr. "Vitamin" Adams, firmly declared there was nothing which could compare with "Maggies' Mouth Wash" and "Vap's Vitamins."

A wonderful evening of entertainment was had by all.

The hostesses were: Mrs. Walter Gibbes, Mrs. G. M. McLendon, Mrs. Dick Kilby, Mrs. Jesse Jones, Mrs. Norwood Spann, Mrs. H. T. Matthews, Mrs. O. V. Shearer, Mrs. H. B. Gillespie, Jr., Mrs. R. M. Dent, and Mrs. J. H. Adams.
